

The Centre for Human Rights and Peace (CHRP) at the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies jointly with the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights (KNCHR) will conduct collaborative research on police reforms in Kenya. Preparations for this exercise are already underway following initial discussions between the KNCHR represented by Mr. Lucas Kimanthi and CHRP represented by Dr. J. B. Ndohvu, Coordinator of the CHRP